Suspending your Health Cover – important information

1. You may suspend your membership if you're travelling overseas for a period of time (conditions and limits apply).
2. The suspension period must be for a minimum period of three (3) months with at least six (6) months between suspensions for overseas travel.
3. You're required to provide documentation showing the dates of your travel (such as your travel itinerary or boarding pass). The maximum allowable suspension for overseas travel is 12 months.
4. A membership may not be suspended unless the premiums have been paid up to the date of suspension.
5. Benefits are not payable for the membership whilst in suspension.
6. Pre-existing condition rules may apply when a suspended membership is reactivated.
7. The membership must be re-activated within one (1) month of; the date on which the reason for suspension ceases to apply; or the date on which the maximum suspension period has been reached, whichever is earlier.
8. Please ensure that you have read and understood the Terms and Conditions associated with suspending your AIA Health Insurance membership, available by calling 1800 161 170 or going to aia.com.au/ovhc.
